

~ HAIKU in two lines ~

Why don't you join us!

Haiku is a very short form of Japanese poetry. This Japanese culture is loved all over the world today. You may wonder how we express our thought with just few words. This is the depth of Haiku and one of interesting things.

The instructor is Professor Nagata who launched "Haiku University". He has given feedback about each Haiku that was gathered from all over the world through the internet.

He would give some tips how to create Haiku for you! Please feel free to Write anything that you feel, think and like!
