

Kumamoto International Foundation

April 25th, 2016

No.15

You can see a doctor without health insurance card

In order to support people who evacuated without health insurance card, you can see a doctor if you tell your name, date of birth, phone number, the name of your affiliation, and its address at medical institutions.

The partial medical fee may also be exempted/ extended by consulting at medical institutions for them.