Using Your Smartphone for Real-time Voice Translations!

The following guide provides information on how to download a smartphone application (free of charge) that offers voice translations in various languages. Speak into your phone and receive a verbal translation on the spot.

- How to download the smartphone app:
 - iPhone: App Store → VoiceTra

 - For other smartphones: Google play → VoiceTra

- Languages
 - This application is able to translate in and between 31 different languages; including English, Chinese, and Korean.